Coast Guard Retiree Services Program Director

Rear Admiral Matthew Sibley, Director, Reserve & Military Personnel (CG-13)

Happy New Year to all of you in the Long Blue Line. My wife Margaret and I enjoyed having our two boys (ok, now in their 20’s!) home for the holidays and I hope each of you had the opportunity to be with those that you love. It was also my pleasure to attend the Capital Area CG Retiree Council’s annual holiday party, where I was reminded of the life-long connection between our active duty and retired Coast Guard family — sharing a great evening with current and past Commandants and MCPOCGs and other valued shipmates. I want to extend my sincere appreciation to the CGNRC and RRCs for their extraordinary accomplishments during the past year and I look forward to working with the new CGNRC Co-Chairs upon appointment in April 2019. From the entire staff here in CG-1, Happy Holidays and the best to you all in 2019.

Communications and information services remain at the heart of the program’s mission. This was highlighted during months of paper mailing/digital communications regarding termination of the TRICARE Retiree Dental Plan (TRDP) on 31 Dec 2018 and need for beneficiaries to enroll in the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP) to maintain dental coverage. See “ASK” page 2...

Coast Guard National Retiree Council (CGNRC) Co-Chairs

RADM Ron Rábago, USCG (Ret), Rabago.CGNRC@yahoo.com
 MCPO Kevin Isherwood, USCG (Ret), Kevin.D.Isherwood@gmail.com

On 27 November 2018, your CGNRC Co-Chairs met with the Commandant to brief him on our Annual Meeting held on 24-25 April 2018 and our Annual Report dated 15 September 2018. The annual report is available on the website at www.dcms.uscg.mil/retiree. This was the CGNRC’s first briefing to ADM Schultz and we described how the CGNRC is an important part of the Retiree Services Program and how we support Retirees. While we covered all of the priorities in the annual report, we concentrated most of our time on the Communications Strategy and Regional Retiree Council Guide. The Commandant was well informed about the Retiree Services Program and expressed his strong support throughout our discussion. At the end of our meeting, he specifically supported our initiative/priority to better recognize our dedicated retiree volunteers as he and other senior officers travel to visit Coast Guard units. We will work with the Retiree Services Manager to identify those retiree volunteers at our Regional Retiree Councils that deserve special recognition in the coming months.

MEDICAL RECORDS

If you are filing a claim for medical benefits with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), you do not need to request a copy of your military records from the NPRC. The VA Regional Office (VARO) handling your case should petition for needed service and medical records, to adjudicate your claim, from the Coast Guard, NPRC, and VA Records Management Center.

DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) provides services to former members of the military, not just those who are retired from the military. If you are disabled, the VA establishes your level of disability compensation, and handles any changes or updates. These include: • Additional (tax-free) benefit for veterans injured while in the service; • Ratings for service-connected disability codes; • Ratings for Special Monthly Compensation; • Individual Unemployment ratings; Re-rating you if you feel your disability has increased. The VA also administers pensions, educational programs, home loans, life insurance, vocational rehabilitation, survivors’ benefits (such as Dependency and Indemnity Compensation-DIC), medical benefits and burial benefits. If you have questions or concerns about any of these topics, please contact the VA at 800-827-1000 or visit their website at:

www.va.gov

CONCURRENT RECEIPT OF DISABILITY PAY (CRDP) - AUDIT ERROR WORKSHEET (AEW) BACKLOG

All Backlogged files have been transmitted to the VA and their VROs are working them manually in VBMS. We do not have visibility when they complete their work and so are not made aware when payments are made to retirees. We are currently sending an automated file to the VA once per month that includes all completed Audit Error Worksheets (AEWs) finished since the previous month's transmission. We are continuing to see an increase in the number of retirees that have changes to their service connected disability which in turn requires the completion of a new AEW. We are continuing to streamline our part of the process to reduce the number of days between our receipt of a change and the completion of an AEW.

THE BARQUE OF SAVIORS

by Russel Drumm

The passage of the Eagle from the Kriegsmarine to the U.S. Coast Guard. This is a fascinating read about the tall ship Eagle, which was used by the German Navy during WWII. In 1936 the vessel was christened "Horst Wessel" with Adolf Hitler present. The ship is now used as a training vessel for Coast Guard academy cadets. What is especially interesting about this book is that the author spent time on the ship while writing the book, so you get a real feel for what it's like to be on this ship. An enjoyable read, and a great way to tie history into a present day story.

Best, Julie Havelka, wife of R. Neil Carter USCG (Ret.)

AUTHOR/HISTORIANLCDR B. T. (Tom) BEARD, USCG (RET)

Two books by author/historian Tom Beard were awarded prizes by the Military Writer's Society of America (MWSA) at their 2018 convention in Charleston, SC. Lighthouses of America received a "Gold Medal" award and Wonderful Flying Machines a "Bronze Medal." A previous book, The Coast Guard received a "Gold Medal" award from MWSA in 2011. Among other recent awards for writing Beard received the 2016 Admiral Arthur W. Radford Award "For Excellence in Naval Aviation History and Literature."

Olivia J. Hooker

"I truly think everyone should do what they can to sustain their country"

In November 1942, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt signed into law a bill that established the United States Coast Guard Women's Reserve. Known as SPARS, this new law allowed women to serve in the Coast Guard Reserve for the duration of World War II plus six months. Two years later, in October 1944, the ban on African American women becoming SPARS was lifted and in February 1945, Olivia Hooker joined four other women as the first class of African American SPARS.

An Oklahoma native, Olivia didn't know anything about boats at the time she enlisted in the Coast Guard Reserve. Joining her fellow SPARS at boot camp in Manhattan Beach, New York, a month after enlisting, she went on to spend her service time in Boston where she worked at a Coast Guard separation center. When the war ended, the SPARS program was disbanded and Olivia returned to civilian life having earned the rank of Petty Officer 2nd Class, as well as a Good Conduct Award.

Following her military service, Olivia earned her master's degree in psychology and in 1961 she received her PhD. When President Barack Obama spoke at the United States Coast Guard Academy commencement ceremony in 2015, Dr. Hooker, 100 years old at the time, was sitting in the front row. As the cadets listened, President Obama calling her "an inspiration" for the remarkable life she has led, and shared with the graduates her belief that, "It's not about you, or me. It's about what we can give to this world."

In September 2018, Dr. Olivia J. Hooker, now 103 years old, sat down for a StoryCorps interview in her Westchester, New York, home with Janis Porter, her goddaughter, to talk about what it was like to be a groundbreaking part of military history, and to share what her time in the service has meant to her.

COMBINED FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

Now, Federal employees in a retired status are invited to support their favorite charitable causes through the CFC via a deduction from their annuity. Federal retirees can continue to support the charitable causes they care about by giving through the CFC with a one-time contribution (i.e., cash, check, or credit card). After years of public service, Federal retirees may want to continue giving back to their community, country, and people around the world. Participation in the CFC is a great way to extend that spirit of service, as the funds raised help those who need it most. See CFC at: <https://www.cfcnca.org/retiree-giving>
